

Introducing the...

Journal of Venue and Event Management

Be A PART OF IT!

... A CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS ...

Practitioners and educators will welcome this new journal and its mission to guide improved practice through well designed research.

Don Hancock, Ph.D.

I applaud the commitment to create the Journal of Venue and Event Management. The practical research and survey findings, coupled with talented writing, are needed and will be valuable in moving the industry forward.

Ray Ward, CFE

This NEW journal is a publication devoted to disseminating research studies focused on the management of venues and events. Management professionals, academic faculty, and graduate students are invited to submit research manuscripts for publication consideration. For research topic suggestions, manuscript submission guidelines and additional information, visit our website at www.hrsm.sc.edu/SPTE/JEM

To request manuscript guidelines, receive advertising rate sheets, forward suggestions, or to submit other inquiries contact:

Dr. Peter J. Graham, Editor
Sport & Entertainment Management
University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC 29208
pgraham@sc.edu
Phone: 803-777-9324
Fax: 803-777-8788

- All submitted research manuscripts will be peer reviewed
- Suggestions for future research are most welcomed
- Contact the Editor if you are a facility or event management professional wishing to conduct and publish research in conjunction with an academic researcher or graduate student OR an academic or graduate student wishing to conduct research with a professional facility or event manager. Upon notification, every effort will be made to assist you in connecting with an appropriate research partner.