

Centre for Conflict, Rights and Justice

Sporting Justice Conference

Programme

Friday 28 March 2014

10.00 am – 6.30 pm

A one-day conference hosted by the Centre for Conflicts, Rights and Justice at Nottingham Law School, Nottingham Trent University.

10 am	Registration Newton Building, Level 2 Foyer
10.30 am – 10.50 am	Welcome and introduction Newton Building, Adams Room
	Tom Lewis Director, Centre for Conflict, Rights and Justice at Nottingham Law School
10.50 am – 12.10 pm	Session 1: Newton Building, Adams Room
	“Re-imagining the IOC: Host City Contracts and Sporting Justice” Professor Mark James Northumbria University & Professor Guy Osborn University of Westminster	“Sporting Justice from the Arbitrator’s Perspective” Professor Jack Anderson Queens University Belfast
12.10 pm – 1.10 pm	Lunch Newton Building, Old Library

1.10 pm – 2.45 pm	Session 2: Newton Building, Adams Room
	“Alternative mechanisms for engaging with 'on-field' racism in sport” Professor Simon Gardiner Leeds Carnegie University	“The Andy Carroll Saga as a Case Study in Sporting (In)justice” Simon Boyes Nottingham Law School	“Sports Law and Notions of Justice” John O’Leary Anglia Ruskin University
2.45 pm – 3.15 pm	Refreshments Newton Building, Coffee Hub A
3.15 pm – 4.35 pm	Session 3: Newton Building, Adams Room
	“EU state aid and the autonomy of European football: An overlooked battleground?” Dr Richard Craven Northumbria University	“Reforming the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players” Professor Richard Parrish Edge Hill University
4.35 pm – 5.00 pm	Reflection on key themes and close Newton Building, Adams Room
	Simon Boyes Nottingham Law School
5.00 pm	Post-conference reception Level 2 Foyer		